Expectations for YSU Participants Traveling to ASU for a Semester Residence

1. YSU participants will provide ASU representatives with necessary information in a timely manner to process visa requests, coordinate travel arrangements, and schedule your attendance in ASU classes. A pre-departure orientation in Yerevan will be conducted for those traveling to the US.
2. YSU participants will attend an initial university orientation upon arrival in Arizona. The orientation will include issues of higher education in the U.S., the administrative structure and governance of ASU, and information about American Studies at ASU.
3. YSU participants will attend 2 regularly scheduled classes in the field of American Studies. YSU scholars will be provided with textbooks and will be expected to complete readings that are assigned to the class. Final class selections will be made during the initial university orientation in consultation with the YSU project team.
4. YSU participants will attend a weekly seminar organized specifically for this ASU-YSU partnership. Seminars will cover pedagogical topics, topics relevant to your field, and community outreach issues.
5. During the semester at ASU, YSU participants will develop a comprehensive action plan for implementation upon their return to Yerevan State University. The action plan will include plans for the delivery at YSU of two courses utilizing the syllabi generated while in residence at ASU.
6. You will have the opportunity to network with professional colleagues in your field and may, on occasion, give guest presentations.

I agree to the terms outlined above and wish to be considered for placement in the semester-in-residence program at ASU.
